We Understand the Challenges of K-12 Technology Landscapes

You strive for excellence in technology integration to boost outcomes. For that, you need charging infrastructure that supports your goals. We understand how disruptive low battery issues can be, how important it is that charging technology is reliable, and for support to be quick and painless. That's why we design solutions-focused products and emphasize customer care from the planning stage to beyond deployment.

*Free Your Team for Critical Projects
Boost Outcomes with Fewer Disruptions
Enjoy Quality Service with Less Hassle*

Enhance the use of technology and remove obstacles to learning with our model-based guides that help navigate charging solutions options. These guides highlight some of our most recommended solutions.

"Without JAR Systems, the use and integration of 21st-century tools in the classroom would be minimal to non-existent. The value that JAR has brought to our district is higher educational minutes in each classroom and the ability for the teachers to set their curriculum structure without interruptions. If you design technology in a classroom correctly, it just works, and the teacher does not have to think about it. That's exactly what JAR Systems did for our teachers."
